

Flow rate:
If all water is turned off & number shows, there is a leak. This number indicates the size of your leak in gallons.

Leak detection symbol. A water drop will light up.

Measurement unit:
This is the reading that is entered into the billing software.